Plaintiff JUAN ALVAREZ (hereinafter "Plaintiff"), on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, by and through his undersigned attorney, alleges against the above-named Defendant FEIN, SUCH, KAHN & SHEPARD, P.C. (hereinafter "Defendant"), its employees, agents, and successors, the following:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Plaintiff brings this action for actual and statutory damages and declaratory and injunctive relief arising from the Defendant's violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq., the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (hereinafter "FDCPA"), which prohibits debt collectors from engaging in abusive, deceptive and unfair practices.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1331. This is an action for violations of 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq.

3. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) because jurisdiction is not founded solely on diversity of citizenship and Plaintiff resides in this jurisdiction.

DEFINITIONS

4. As used in reference to the FDCPA, the terms “creditor,” “consumer,” “debt,” and “debt collector” are defined in § 803 of the FDCPA and 15 U.S.C. § 1692a.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff demands a jury trial on all issues.

PARTIES

6. The FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq., which prohibits certain debt collection practices provides for the initiation of court proceedings to enjoin violations of the FDCPA and to secure such equitable relief as may be appropriate in each case.

7. Plaintiff is a natural person and resident of Essex County, in the State of New Jersey, and is a “Consumer” as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3).

8. Based upon information and belief, Defendant FEIN, SUCH, KAHN & SHEPARD, P.C. (“FEIN SUCH” or “Defendant”) is a law firm with offices located at 7

Century Drive, Suite 201, Parsippany, New Jersey.

9. Based upon information and belief, Defendant is a company that uses the mail, telephone, email and facsimile and regularly engages in business, the principal purpose of which is to attempt to collect debts alleged to be due another. Defendant is a “Debt Collector” as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692(a)(6).

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

10. Plaintiff brings this action as a state wide class action, pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (hereinafter “FRCP”), on behalf of himself and all New Jersey consumers and their successors in interest (the “Class”), who have received debt collection letters, emails and/or notices from the Defendant which are in violation of the FDCPA, as described in this Complaint.

11. This Action is properly maintained as a class action. The Class consists of:

Class 1

All consumers located in New Jersey who during the Class Period were sent a collection letter or notice by or on behalf of Defendant to collect a debt in which such letter or notice sought to collect court costs prior to the entry of judgment against the consumer in a state court action seeking to collect the debt.

Class 2

All consumers located in New Jersey who during the Class Period were sent a collection letter or notice by or on behalf of Defendant to collect a debt, which contained the same or substantially similar language: “The Court has notified us that you have been served with a Summons and Complaint for collection of this matter. Please be advised that you have thirty-five days from the date of service to file your responsive pleading in this matter.”

Class 3

All New Jersey consumers who were sent letters, and/or notices from Defendant and which included the alleged conduct and practices described herein.

- The Class period begins one year prior to the filing of this Action. The class definition may be subsequently modified or refined.

12. The Class satisfies all the requirements of Rule 23 of the FRCP for maintaining a class action:

- Upon information and belief, the Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable because there are hundreds and/or thousands of persons who have received debt collection letters and/or notices from the Defendant that violate specific provisions of the FDCPA. Plaintiff is complaining of a standard form letter, email and/or notice that is sent to hundreds of persons (*See Exhibit A attached to the Complaint, except that the undersigned attorney has, in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2 partially redacted the financial account numbers in an effort to protect Plaintiff's privacy);
- There are questions of law and fact which are common to the Class and which predominate over questions affecting any individual Class member. These common questions of law and fact include, without limitation:
 - a. Whether Defendant violated various provisions of the FDCPA.
 - b. Whether Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by the Defendant's conduct;

- c. Whether Plaintiff and the Class have sustained damages and are entitled to restitution as a result of Defendant's wrongdoing, and if so, what is the proper measure and appropriate statutory formula to be applied in determining such damages and restitution; and
 - d. Whether Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to declaratory and/or injunctive relief.
- Plaintiff's claims are typical of the Class, which all arise from the same operative facts and are based on the same legal theories;
 - Plaintiff has no interest adverse or antagonistic to the interest of the other members of the Class;
 - Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interest of the Class and has retained experienced and competent attorneys to represent the Class;
 - A Class Action is superior to other methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims herein asserted. Plaintiff anticipates that no unusual difficulties are likely to be encountered in the management of this class action;
 - A Class Action will permit large numbers of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously and without the duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would engender. Class treatment will also permit the adjudication of relatively small claims by many Class members who could not otherwise afford to seek legal redress for the wrongs complained of herein. Absent a Class Action, class members will continue to suffer losses of statutory protected rights as well as monetary damages. If the Defendant's conduct is allowed to proceed without remedy it will continue to reap and retain the proceeds of its ill-gotten gains;

- Defendant has acted on grounds generally applicable to the entire Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the Class as a whole.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

13. Plaintiff is at all times relevant to this lawsuit, a "consumer" as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692a(3).

14. Defendant collects and attempts to collect debts incurred or alleged to have been incurred for personal, family or household purposes on behalf of creditors using the United States Postal Service, telephone and/or the Internet.

15. Defendant is a "debt collector" as defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692a(6).

16. Plaintiff is at all times relevant to this lawsuit, a "consumer" as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692a(3).

17. Prior to September 8, 2020, Plaintiff allegedly incurred a financial obligation to Amirata Surgical Associates ("ASA") related to medical services provided to Plaintiff.

18. The ASA obligation arose out of a transaction in which money, property, insurance or services, which are the subject of the transaction, are primarily for personal, family or household purposes.

19. The ASA obligation is a "debt" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5).

20. ASA is a "creditor" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(4).

21. At some time prior to September 8, 2020, the ASA obligation became past due with a balance of more than $15,000.

22. ASA then referred the past due obligation for collection to Defendant.

23. On or about August 31, 2020, Defendant filed suit against Plaintiff in The Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, Special Civil Part, Essex County, Dkt. No. ESX-DC-10677-20 in the case of Amirata Surgical Associates. v. Alvarez, ("the State Court Action") seeking to collect on the ASA obligation with a balance due of $15,000.00.

24. On September 8, 2020, Defendant sent to Plaintiff a collection letter ("the Collection Letter") seeking to collect a principal due amount of $15,000.00 plus court costs of $82.00 for a total Balance Due amount of $15,082.00 See, attached Exhibit A

25. Defendant was not entitled to demand the $82.00 in court costs since no such judgment had been entered in the State Court Action entitling Defendant to recover court costs from Plaintiff.

26. The September 8, 2020 collection letter was sent to Plaintiff in connection with the collection of the ASA obligation.

27. The September 8, 2020 collection letter was a "communication" as defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692a(2).

28. Additionally, the Collection Letter provided:

The Court has notified us that you have been served with a Summons and Complaint for collection of this matter. Please be advised that you have thirty-five days from the date of service to file your responsive pleading in this matter.

29. However, Defendant's statement that Plaintiff only had 35 days from the date of service to file an Answer was incorrect.

30. The state court file indicated that the summons was served by mail on Plaintiff on September 2, 2020. See, attached Exhibit B.

31. The summons in the State Court Action indicated that the Answer was due on October 12, 2020. See, Exhibit C.

32. Thus, Plaintiff had a total of 40 days from the date the summons was served by mailed to file an Answer.

33. Yet, Defendant did not inform Plaintiff that he had an additional 5 days to file an Answer since service of the Summons and Complaint.

34. Thus, the least sophisticated consumer would interpret that the language in the Collection Letter to mean that an Answer would be due on October 7, 2020, when in fact the Answer was not due until October 12, 2020.

35. The Collection Letter was sent or caused to be sent by a person employed by Defendant as a "debt collector" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).

36. Plaintiff suffered injury in fact by being subjected to the unfair and abusive practices of Defendant.

37. Plaintiff suffered actual harm by being the target of Defendant's misleading debt collection communications.

38. Defendant violated Plaintiff's rights not to be the target of misleading debt collection communications.

39. Defendant violated Plaintiff's right to a trustful and fair debt collection process.

40. Under the FDCPA, Plaintiff had the right to receive certain information from Defendant regarding his or her rights under the FDCPA.

41. Defendant's communications were designed to cause Plaintiff to suffer a harmful disadvantage in charting a course of action in response to Defendant's collection efforts.

42. Defendant's collection letters provided confusing and incorrect information caused Plaintiff a concrete injury in that Plaintiff was deprived of his or her right to receive accurate and trustworthy information regarding his or her rights under the FDCPA.

43. Defendant's communications were designed to cause Plaintiff to suffer a harmful disadvantage in charting a course of action in response to Defendant's collection efforts.

44. The FDCPA ensures that consumers are fully and truthfully apprised of the facts and of their rights, the act enables them to understand, make informed decisions about, and participate fully and meaningfully in the debt collection process. The purpose of the FDCPA is to provide information that helps consumers to choose intelligently. The Defendant's false representations misled the Plaintiff in a manner that deprived Plaintiff of his or her right to enjoy these benefits.

45. As a result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff suffered an actual, concrete injury as a result of Defendant's failure to provide Plaintiff information required under the FDCPA.

46. Plaintiff's receipt of a collection letter which provided incorrect, incomplete and confusing information constitutes a concrete injury.

47. The failure of Defendant to provide correct information impeded Plaintiff's ability to make a well-reasoned decision.

48. Defendant's failure to provide accurate information injured Plaintiff in that it impacted his or her ability to decide on how to proceed with respect to the matter – will she hire an attorney, represent himself, payoff the debt, engage in a payment plan, file for bankruptcy, etc.

49. The deceptive communication additionally violated the FDCPA since it frustrated Plaintiff's ability to intelligently choose his or her response.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES COMPLAINED OF

50. It is Defendant's policy and practice to send written collection communications, in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A, which violate the FDCPA, by inter alia:

- (a) Using false, deceptive or misleading representations or means in connection with the collection of a debt;
- (b) By making false representations of the character or legal status of a debt; and
- (c) Using unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect any debt.

51. On information and belief, Defendant sent written communications, in the form annexed hereto as Exhibits to at least 30 natural persons in the State of New Jersey.

COUNT I

FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT 15 U.S.C. §1692 VIOLATIONS

52. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 51 as if the same were set forth at length.

53. Defendant violated 15 U.S.C. §1692 et seq. of the FDCPA in connection with its collection attempts against Plaintiff and others similarly situated.

54. By sending a collection letter and/or emails, the same as or substantially similar to the attached exhibits, Defendant violated:

- A. 15 U.S.C. §1692e, by using a false, deceptive or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt;
- B. 15 U.S.C. §1692e(2)(A), by falsely representing the character, amount, or legal status of any debt;
- C. 15 U.S.C. §1692e(2)(B), by falsely representing any services rendered or compensation which may lawfully be received by a debt collector for the collection of a debt;
- D. 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(10) by using a false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect a debt from Plaintiff;
- E. 15 U.S.C. §1692f by using unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect any debt; and,
- F. 15 U.S.C. §1692f(1), by collecting or attempting to collect any amount not expressly authorized by the agreement creating the debt or permitted by law; a

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and others similarly situated, demands judgment against Defendant as follows:

(a) Declaring that this action is properly maintainable as a Class Action and certifying Plaintiff as Class representative and attorney Lawrence Hersh, Esq., as Class Counsel;

(b) Awarding Plaintiff and the Class maximum statutory damages;

(d) Awarding pre-judgment interest;

(e) Awarding post-judgment interest;

(f) Awarding reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses; and

(g) Awarding Plaintiff and the Class such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
